ENGINEER'S REPORT.

There has been two fires since our last report. The first Nov. 11th, Mary Tigh house and barn; our firemen did heroic work in saving the adjoining property.

The second fire, Nov. 27, Mrs. Spalding's house, and barn.

There has been one more good reservoir put in this year on the east side of Putnam street, making 5 reservoirs from which a good supply of water can be gotten in the village.

The two engines and all the Fire apparatus are in good condition. In our report we recommend about 500 feet of rubber lined linen hose for No. 2 engine.

REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD.

For the year ending Feb. 15, 1902.

In accordance with our usual custom we herewith present a brief report of our schools for the past year.

The annual school meeting occurred Mar. 16, 1901, with a very large attendance, and Henry L. Emerson was re-elected for a term of 3 years. The board soon organized as in the preceding year.

The usual enumeration of the children in town was made by George S. Proctor in April; 356 names were enrolled against 334 of the preceding year, a gain of 22.

As we attempt to pass judgment on the work of the year many things must be taken into consideration. The attendance and teaching force are the important factors. There has been no prevailing disease as during the year before consequently better attendance in general. A few careless pupils, or those present under compulsion, affect the per cent. of attendance and lower the rank of the schools seriously. We always have such and this year has been no exception to the rule.

In the graded schools there have been no change of teachers below the High, while in the rural schools the changes have been more frequent than usual, but among these two teachers of the preceding year have remained with us doing efficient work. To discriminate too closely on the work done is not wise or best. It is possible to find a term's work, by a teacher of little experience, unsatisfactory. We cannot always find the right teacher for the right place. While this may be true when applied to fact it is also true that a very large majority of our teachers have been worthy of the trust committed to them. They have proven by their work a proper preparation for it, and have manifested a devotion to duty worthy of recognition. Of some of our graded schools we can speak with pride; on the other hand some of the best work of the year has been done in two of the ungraded schools.

The tendency of human nature is to be hypercritical. It is true that our schools are not yet ideal schools but we are surely making progress. Would it not be better to admit that we have good schools, which is a fact, and say the appreciative word more frequently to those who are doing their best for our children?

The instruction in music has been continued under Miss Annie P. Stevenson with increasing efficiency and progress. Occasionally we find a teacher who is excellent in the general work of the school room but is weak in this department; this proves a hindrance but the untiring efforts of the music teacher supplies the defect in some way and the work advances. No visit to our schools gives us greater satisfaction than one to listen to the drill work in this department, while for the sweet music the children give us we can hardly speak too kindly.

The most marked feature of the year has been the change in our High School. Sharp differences of opinion have been given, honest and true, we judge, which time may modify as the work of the school and the ability to bear the extra financial burden proves the wisdom of the change.

For reasons for the change read Chapter 95, Laws of 1901, relating to High Schools, for conditions after two term's work under the new regime visit our High School. Three teachers are doing what two could not do. The discipline is of a high order, the instruction in each department bears inspection and yet we are only in the beginning of what we hope for the school. We ask the intelligent and helpful cooperation of all interested to aid us in making our High School an honor to our town and the right means for the education of our young people, even if it means self-sacrifice for the increased expense.

Not only must the salaries of the teachers be provided for but the proper equipment of such a school, to do good work, is no slight matter. At best it must be of slow attainment by the usual method. Our town library is sure to grow because friends have so generously remembered it. Is there not some one in town, whose abundant means justifies the thought, who will feel it a worthy act to contribute necessary funds to more fully equip the school for first class work? The general prosperity of the town depends so largely upon the right education of the children, who are to be the men and women of the future, that we cannot feel, or speak, too strongly concerning these things.

Your committee, in the varied work of the year, have tried to do the best, the wisest thing for the schools, within their possibilities. That we may have failed at times is possible; that we have to some extent succeeded is probable. A friendly suggestion, a word of approval, a kind judgment, are always appreciated and helpful.

We have noticed with pleasure the many visits of parents to the schools. The teacher feels the cooperation of those who care most for the child. The child is inspired to do his best because mother is present to hear him.

For these visits and many other helpful considerations in behalf of our teachers and ourselves we express our thanks and ask for a continued and increasing interest in our schools.

Respectfully submitted,

MARIA L. MOORE,

Sec'y of School Board.
